Banks and related financial service providers are viagra pas cher looking for secure and cost effective communication channel between them and their clients. SMS Messaging enables a direct and interactive communication with these institutions and their clients. Not only can they provide the basic SMS banking services but they can also use SMS as an important marketing and promotional tool. Adtel offers a customised and robust solution which enables reliable and secure service to an institution and its clients.

A subscription service is also available for regular updates on stock information, interest rate changes, forex exchange rates, upcoming events for premium club members and other alerts.

>> Contact us for further details <<