

Corporate template supports full width configurations for use with galleries or forums, make sure you do not publish any modules in left or right column and the  $\hat{A}$  component will fill the entire width.

